

U.S. Department of Justice

United States Attorney
Eastern District of Arkansas

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 27, 2012

CONTACT: Christopher R. Thyer
United States Attorney
501-340-2600

FORMER ASH FLAT TAX RETURN PREPARERS SENTENCED ON MULTIPLE CHARGES

Little Rock - Christopher R. Thyer, United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Arkansas, announced today that James Bruce Morris, age 66, and Karen Sue Morris, age 49, tax return preparers who for several years operated B. Morris Ltd. in Ash Flat, Arkansas, were sentenced today by U.S. District Judge Susan Webber Wright. James Morris was ordered to serve 48 months in prison and his wife, Karen Morris, was sentenced to serve 24 months in prison. Each was sentenced to 3 years of supervision following their terms of imprisonment. The judge will issue an order of restitution in three weeks pertaining to both defendants. Both Morrisses were prohibited from engaging in tax preparation business as part of the sentence. Judge Wright ordered both to report to the Bureau of Prisons by noon on May 7, 2012.

On April 26, 2011, the Morrisses were convicted of 44 charges, which included theft of funds from the Social Security Administration and the Veterans Administration stemming from Mr. Morris concealing his work and earnings from his business in order to qualify for benefits; defrauding the Department of Education regarding false FAFSA applications; and filing false tax returns for themselves and their clients in which income was under-reported and deductions were overstated and in some cases in which the Earned Income Tax Credit was fraudulently received.

This investigation was conducted by agents from the Internal Revenue Service-Criminal Investigation, the Social Security Administration Office of Inspector General, the Veterans Administration Office of Inspector General, and the Department of Education Office of Inspector General.

###